The Internet can be of great help in education. However, it may also a serious obstacle to successful learning.

In this statement, author say about the Internet is obstacle or is help people for their education.

In firstly, I agree with author because in the Internet there are many great and necessary information, which help people in their learning.

In secondly, I understand author because the Internet is attraction. You can watch different videos and photos. Besides, you can communicate with other people, play in on-line games with friends and listen music or radio. And because for many people the Internet is a serious obstacle.

In conclusion, I want saying that the Internet is a good helper, which quickly search different information, ~~quickly~~ but it may be very serious obstacle to learning for people, which want to go to success. However, I think that people should remember about books aside from the Internet.
